Marriott Rive Gauche Hotel
17 Blvd Saint-Jacques, 75014, Paris, France

Dear members of our Survivors Family,

In this weekend, we celebrate being together at a very special family reunion here in Paris, France. We celebrate 80 years of freedom, after the victory of the allied forces in 1945. For me and for the World Federation of Jewish Holocaust Survivors & Descendants, this is a very special conference, because for more than 10 years, we have been working towards the chance to have a conference in this city. And finally, we are here in Paris.

This is also a very special conference as it is the first time that our Federation celebrates two conferences in a row outside the USA. Many of you have heard or will remember that our last conference in Toronto, Canada was very successful. We were blessed with almost 400 participants of all generations.

Yes indeed my generation of Survivors is getting older and every year I notice that this group of Survivor conference participants is getting smaller. However, this year the representation of my generation is larger than in previous years!

The reason? We are here in Europe, and we see a large participation of friends from France and from East-North-and Central Europe. And also from other parts of the world, such as Australia and South America.

We have travelled from all over the world to this conference so that we can be together with our unique Survivor generations community, to enjoy meeting old friends and making new friends once again.

Our Federation offers in our conferences workshops that have been acclaimed as being very meaningful. This year, we offer workshops, panel discussions and plenary speakers that are sure to interest all generations.

I must thank our conference committee for selecting this wonderful Marriott Rive Gauche Hotel & Conference Centre in Paris France and our program committee for offering us a very interesting and meaningful program.

And of course I must not forget to mention and thank our donors: The Fondation de la Shoah, that is helping us to welcome a large French participation. The German Foundation Erinnerung, Verzeunung und Zukunft, which enabled us to bring Central-North and East European Survivors to this unique gathering of the Survivors Community, and many generous individuals.

The legacy, the memories of my fellow Survivors from all parts in the world is, I am happy to say, safe in the good hands of our next generations.

Meet me with open heart and I shall greet you with open arms.

Max Arpels Lezer, President World Federation of Jewish Holocaust Survivors & Descendants

Dear Conference attendees, members and friends of the WFJHS&D, Mémorial de la Shoah, KTA, GSI, and all survivor and next generation groups worldwide,

Welcome to the 35th World Federation of Jewish Holocaust Survivors & Descendants Conference. This, conference, held in the 80th year of the end of World War II, is the 8th conference that the Kindertransport Association (KTA) is co-hosting. We are delighted to join together again with our international and multi-generational family of Holocaust survivors and descendants for this meaningful and memorable event.

For conference attendees who are unfamiliar with the KTA, the KTA is an intergenerational association of Kinder – the children (toddlers to teenagers) from Germany, Austria, Czechoslovakia, Poland, and Danzig, who were sent alone, without their parents, in the months between the pogrom of November 9, 1939, and the outbreak of World War II, to the United Kingdom and, in much smaller numbers, to Switzerland, Sweden, France, the Netherlands, the USA, and Belgium – and their children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

The missions of the KTA are to Connect Kinder and descendants; to Educate on the story of the Kindertransports as an important part of Holocaust History; and to Support and Advocate for children at risk today, especially refugees without parents.

In January of this year, I was honored to be invited to attend the commemoration of the liberation of Auschwitz, and I traveled with the names of relatives and friends of KTA members who had been murdered there. I found a quiet place to say a prayer for them, including my great-uncles and my mother's cousin Pauli who was killed at five years old. We remember the children whose lives were saved by Kindertransport, the children who were not, and the brave parents who sent their children away, not knowing when, where, or if they would see them again.

We are grateful to bring this year to a close in this special community of Survivors and Descendants, and we welcome this chance to listen and learn, to share our stories, to dance, to build community, to meet new friends, see old friends, and to continue the family relationships that will keep our community connected, strong, active and vital into the future.

If anyone has questions about the Kindertransports or the KTA, please find me, or one of the KTA Board members here at the conference.

Dear Holocaust Survivors, Fellow Descendants of Survivors and Partners,

Welcome members of our extended family! The world is again very hostile to the Jewish people but collectively we can support each other as we face today's challenges of hateful antisemitism and Holocaust denial / revisionism.

We are a unique family. We are the surviving remnants of a world destroyed by the Shoah. We are scattered around the globe, and this is a special reunion.

Our thanks to our host community in Paris for sharing their home with us and to the World Federation of Jewish Holocaust Survivors & Descendants for hosting this gathering.

Mémorial de la Shoah

The origins of the Shoah Memorial go back to World War II, when a secret archive was founded aimed at gathering evidence of the persecution of the Jews. The Center for Contemporary Jewish Documentation later became the Mémorial de la Shoah, also known as the Mémorial des Inconnus Juifs, or the Mémorial of the Unknown Jewish Martyrs. The Archives Center, the museum, and the Mémorial are today essential places of mediation, reflection, and exploration of the past.

The Mémorial de la Shoah is both a museum housing a permanent exhibition, holding two temporary exhibitions each year, hosting numerous cultural events (meetings, screenings, and testimonies), as well as offering an archive center open for research, a place of memory and legacy.

In 2012, the Shoah Memorial opened a museum in Drancy, opposite the city of La Murette, a former internment camp. Located in the heart of Shoah history in France, this center complements the one in Paris by presenting the history of the Drancy camp. The Shoah Memorial is also present in other French places of Shoah memorialization, as well as abroad. The memorial site of Le Chambon-sur-Lignon, the museum at the train station in Pithiviers, the Cercil in Orléans, and the Jules Isaac Centre in Clermont-Ferrand are also museums and places of remembrance that belong to the Shoah Memorial.

France is home to Europe's largest and the world's third-largest survivor community. Preserving the memory of the victims, teaching history, sharing knowledge, and fighting against antisemitism are today at the heart of the Mémorial de la Shoah's core mission.

Eighty years after the liberation of the camps and the return of the deportees, the Mémorial de la Shoah is honored to be one of the partners of the World Federation of Jewish Survivors and Descendants' 35th Annual Conference in Paris.

Translation Services at the Conference

The Conference's main language is English. However, the World Federation will provide attendees with an automatic English-to-French and French-to-English translation by AI Wordly Translation Service.

Instructions on how to use the service will be emailed and also available on-site.

In both the plenary room and all breakout rooms, you'll find large QR codes posted on the doors. If you'd like to use translation from English to French or vice versa, scan the QR code with your mobile phone and access live translation of your session. You can also follow the translation on room monitors in the plenary room and in some breakout rooms.
