

---

Call for Applications

Fondation
pour la
Mémoire
de la Shoah

[Institut du Genre]

« HISTORY OF JEWISH WOMEN IN FRANCE
DURING WWII AND THE LONG AFTER-WAR »

The Fondation pour la Mémoire de la Shoah, Paris,
In partnership with the Institut du Genre, propose a doctoral and a post-doctoral grant for young researchers writing on the history of Jewish women in France during WWII and the long after-war (1939-end of the 1950s).

The candidates may be French or foreign students, duly registered in a doctoral program, and linked to a research team, in France or abroad. Granted for one year, the stipends may be prolonged upon request.

PROPOSED SUPPORTS

- 1 doctoral grant
- 1 post-doctoral grant

CLAUSES

Registration forms are available
on the Foundation's web site

APPLICATIONS MUST BE REACHED BY 1st APRIL 2026

Fondation pour la Mémoire de la Shoah
Programme « Histoire des femmes
juives en France... »
10, avenue Percier F-75008 Paris
www.fondationshoah.org

Contact :
Léna Talvy
Tél. +33 (0)1 53 42 63 20
Mail: histoire@fondationshoah.org